

CODE of PROFESSIONAL ETHICS FOR CERTIFIED LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALISTS

A CLVS MEMBER SHALL:

ONE

Render services to all parties in a competent manner. A CLVS shall maintain the integrity of the legal video profession.

TWO

Perform all tasks in a professional manner, observing all laws, rules, and orders of the court relating to the proceedings.

THREE

Refrain from performing any service under terms or conditions that will compromise, in any way, his or her impartiality or the exercise of good judgment. A CLVS shall not adversely affect the fair and impartial portrayal of the proceeding.

FOUR

Refrain from doing anything that affects the impartiality of the CLVS.

FIVE

Absent the consent of the parties concerned or a court order, a CLVS shall not reveal confidential information entrusted in or provided to such CLVS by any of the parties.

SIX

Be truthful and accurate when making public statements or when advertising the CLVS' qualifications or the services provided.

SEVEN

Determine fees independently, except when established by statute or court order, entering into no unlawful agreements with others on the fees to any user.

EIGHT

Refrain from giving, directly or indirectly, any gift or anything of value to attorneys or their staff, other clients or their staff, or any other persons or entities associated with any litigation, which exceeds $150 in the aggregate per recipient each year. Nothing offered in exchange for future work is permissible, regardless of its value. Pro bono services as defined by the NCRA Guidelines for Professional Practice or by applicable state and local laws, rules, and regulations are permissible in any amount.

LEARN MORE AT NCRA.ORG